'CLOAK & DAGGER': Bianca A. Santos tapped to Guest Star in Marvel series

Cloak and Dagger, "Vikertown Sound", Review!

May 09, 2019

Tandy has given up hope and captured by Andre. We hear some jazz as a paper floats, a missing girl poster, picked off the street in a garbage truck that passes the Viking motel. The horn blows inside the room played by Andre, Tandy is asleep on the bed, and then all is dark. O'Reilly enters a drug lab with police tape, a crime scene, and Cloak enters. Tyrone picks up a shovel that was sliced and both recognize it was by Tandy. She wakes up in the bed. Andre tells her that she should be careful not to move from the bed. He says the experiences were real for her. Tyrone is beating himself up for being angry at Tandy. She stands up and tries to form her Light Dagger, but can't form it. Without hope, she will need Tyrone to activate her powers. Lia enters the motel room with a huge man, Bo (Theodus Crane). Adina works on her kitchen and sees Connors tied in a chair who wakes up. He asks to use the restroom while she starts cooking to work things out. Adina is still angry at Connors killing Billy. Lia tells Tandy the routine. She opens the door to show Tandy they are free to go. Lia tells Tandy her friends won't save her.

CLOAK AND DAGGER - "Vikertown Sound" - OLIVIA HOLT, BROOKLYN MCLINN - Alfonso Bresciani/Freeform.
Tyrone searches Andre's center and then sees him. He says he is looking for Tandy. Tyrone introduces himself to shake hands and sees the record store and the "Tandy + Tyrone" tape on a record. Antoine using his dream world power flips the record with the tape, "Tandy Does Not Care About You." The girl, Del (Bianca A. Santos), sweeping the room is told the reality by Tandy. Connors explains about the night of the oil rig explosion. He explains about the changing of records. Then, he says he spent eight months and finding himself. Otis enters and sees Connors. Tyrone sees the Tyrone Johnson record. Andre goes to seeing the wave pattern he saw on the record wall, but Chantelle is suspicious. Tandy sees the opportunity to escape and tries to leave walking out. She sees a bus and starts to run towards it. Bo pulls her back. Lia was informed by Del. Bo covers Tandy's mouth and Del breathes smoke that knocks her out. This is an important part of the episode, the cult mentality, where the abused are told what their abusers want them to believe. Connors hears the arguments and moves the chair to use his mouth and take a cutting knife, but drops it before Adina returns. She asks where is Billy's body.

Misery is at the record store and takes off the record and puts on a Tandy record. We really haven't seen Misery until this point. The dream world with the records shows up again here, the way D'Spayre controls his victims. This gives something to Tyrone on the city tram and he is joined by girl ballet dancers, he puts on his cloak. Tandy wakes up, checked by Lia, but she can't move. Lia tells about her dress up as a kid and puts a white dress on Tandy. She places headphones onto Tandy. Misery plays a record of sirens and then Tyrone sees several passing ambulances. He makes a call from a rooftop and has some spray paint. Chantelle knows that Andre is close to becoming a god. She is suspicious about Andre. He stabs her. At the record store, he sees a pile of records and Chantelle is there! Tyrone has spray painted a pattern on the roof. An ambulance driver stops and Tyrone cloaks in to ask where is Tandy. Del checks on Tandy. She was told she expected driver were killed and Tandy says they were saved.

CLOAK AND DAGGER - "Vikertown Sound" - OLIVIA HOLT - Alfonso Bresciani/Freeform.
Chantelle says to Andre the pattern shows "the bridge, the waves, the water." She sees Misery outside. He challenges her to play records. There is a baby crying, Evita, and she shows no fear. In the Johnson house, Connors says they could not find Billy's body, Adina doesn't believe him and starts crying. She only wants to bury her son. He tells her his body is at the fairground. Adina thanks him. The Viking motel at night, Del sees Bo checking on the candy machine, Lia sees she has taken his cell phone. Del knows the truth. Tandy hears this from the next room and forms her Light Dagger. I really like it and Cloak appears. Lia tells her that it is Del who gives Tandy hope. Misery and the records. The ambulance crashes and Tyrone appears. Lia struggles with Del and Tandy cuts through the wall with the Light Dagger. Tyrone fights with Bo and uses his cloak powers to defeat him. She throws Light Daggers and finally the pair see each other, but Tyrone collapses. He seems to be dissolving! This almost seems like the death scene in the dream world that stole away Tandy's hope, but we know the duo will find a way.

Bianca Santos Talks Acting Journey With 'Priceless' Role

Opening nationwide Friday, Priceless centers on James Stevens (For King & Country's Joel Smallbone), a hardened widower who takes a no-questions asked job to drive a box truck cross country. When James discovers that two understandably frightened sisters (Bianca Santos, Amber Midthunder) are his passengers, he risks his life by tangling with the criminal (Jim Parrack) who's bent on having these women work for him.

With her role as the kindhearted and strong-willed Antonia, Santos (The Fosters, Ouija) has her share of intense scenes with Parrack, who basically stayed in character throughout the production. Santos took a different approach to her work in Priceless.

"She switched into character pretty easily," said director Ben Smallbone, who knew Santos was perfect for the role right from the jump. "It was a little problematic on days because she would have this crazy burst of energy prior to going into these really serious moments. She would be dancing in the hallways and cracking jokes with people and smiling. I'd be going, 'Bianca, we're about to shoot the most pivotal scene in the film, maybe we need to tone it down a little bit!' But it was pretty amazing to watch her switch from very fun, (happy go lucky) Bianca to this very serious role."

During the press conference, I asked Santos if slipping in and out of her role was an easy process. Click on the media bar below to hear the actress talk about her role in Priceless:

Along with acting, Santos is also exploring her skills as a singer and producer. "I have a song on the soundtrack which is really awesome for me to kind of dabble in Joel's world," added Santos. "I'm so excited about it. Along with that, this year I've really dabbled into just kind of doing my own projects. I've produced about three projects this year – so just expanding (my) horizons (and) continuing to do things that matter. Because that's all I want to do."

Check out the trailer below to Priceless, which features a portion of the duet with Smallbone and Santos.

Bianca Santos Joins Mae Whitman in 'The DUFF' (EXCLUSIVE)

By Dave McNary | @Variety_DMcnary

Bianca Santos has been cast as a lead in the CBS Films high-school comedy "The DUFF," opposite Mae Whitman.

McG and Mary Viola are producing for Wonderland Sound and Vision along with Susan Cartsonis. Vast Entertainment's Lane Shefter Bishop, who brought the book to Wonderland, is exec producing.

The feature film is set to begin shooting in Atlanta in June. Ari Sandel was attached to direct the project last year from Josh A. Cagan's adaptation of the novel by Kody Keplinger.

The story is centered on a high school senior whose world is turned upside down when she learns that she has been labeled by her group of friends as the DUFF (designated ugly fat friend), a sidekick to her prettier, more popular friends.

Santos will play Casey Cordero, the best friend to Whitman's character, who opts to dump Casey rather than remain the group DUFF.

CBS Films acquired the feature rights "The DUFF" in 2011. Mark Ross and Alex Ginno are overseeing the project for CBS Films.

Santos starred on ABC Family's "The Fosters" and will soon play the lead in MTV's new series "Happyland."

Santos is represented by Luber Roklin Entertainment, Innovative Artists and Ginsburg Daniels.

Bianca Santos On The Message In 'The DUFF': 'Everyone Has Labels. Everything Hurts'

Bianca Santos has us dreaming of the tropics in this new shot from NKD mag.

The 24-year-old actress opened up about leaving her character in Happyland behind and looking forward to The DUFF. Check it:

On how she bonded with Lucy: "I loved how the constant lessons for Lucy were to just be your age and live your life. Like go crush on that guy, yeah you like him, go kiss him or go have fun. I was like, 'Oh my gosh, that's me. I'm Lucy.'"

On The DUFF: "We touch a lot of different aspects, some of them are self-esteem. Obviously 'designated ugly fat friend' is something that hits people and they have an immediate reaction to. Essentially what we are trying to get across in the movie is that everyone has labels. It's up to you what you choose to do with it. I don't think people realize the power it has over kids, teens and adults. I don't care if it's over the Internet. I don't care if it's in your face. Everything hurts."

Bianca Santos, Erin Moriarty

Bianca Santos, Erin Moriarty, Ana Coto and Vivis Colombetti have joined the film, which begins shooting in L.A. this week.

The suspense thriller Ouija -- based on the famous board game -- has rounded out its cast with several actors before filming begins in Los Angeles this week.

Bianca Santos, from ABC Family's The Fosters, Erin Moriarty, who had a role on ABC's Red Widow, newcomer Ana Coto and Paranormal Activity 2 actress Vivis Colombetti have all been cast in the film, which is being directed by Stiles White.

STORY: 'Bates Motel' Actress to Star in Universal's 'Ouija'

The story centers around a group of friends who use the Ouija board to try to make contact with a recently deceased friend, but end up awakening a dark presence. Juliet Snowden and White (Knowing) wrote the script.

As previously reported, Olivia Cooke and Douglas Smith will star in the film, which is produced by Michael Bay, Brad Fuller and Andrew Form for Platinum Dunes, Jason Blum for Blumhouse Productions and Brian Goldner and Bennett Schneir for Hasbro. Bianca Santos Talks 'Happyland' With Cliche Mag Bianca Santos takes over the new cover for Cliche Magazine.

The MTV actress opened up about her new show, Happyland, and about her newest movie, The DUFF. Check it:

On working at theme parks on Happyland: "I think shooting in a 'theme park world' makes everything seem more fun and exciting. There were a couple of times we even got to go on rides! It's a mix, really. I think it's always in my mind to make my job the most enjoyable that I can. That doesn't take away from the fact that a lot of work and preparation needs to go into it beforehand. But when you come to set prepared, that's where you can let it all go and have fun!"

On her character, Lucy: "I think when you see things occur over and over again or you have a front seat to what's behind the curtain, it certainly would make anyone cynical. I think Lucy sees her mom as a prime example. She's someone who got stuck working the park life, single, alone, and struggling to pay bills. It's the opposite of where Lucy wants to go. Some may call it cynical, but others may call it smart."

On The Duff: "The DUFF is a teen comedy based on the book with the same title. D.U.F.F. stands for the designated ugly fat friend. It's not like anything you'd expect it to be! It's a female-heavy cast that will have you rethink the way society makes women (and men!) feel. It'll be as controversial as Easy A was but as witty as Mean Girls."

FYI: Bianca is wearing a Cici Hot ensemble on the cover.
